James Budden is an experienced artist and tutor. Through his teaching and art demonstrations James enjoys inspiring others, sharing skills and supporting both beginners and experienced students alike. James is a graduate in Fine Art whose professional work has included 10 years as a commercial artist. He has undertaken many private and business commissions, is a regular local exhibitor and had his work shown at the Holburne Museum of Art, Bath. His personal art practice focuses on portraiture and figure studies, working mainly in oil, charcoal and pastel.

Course description

Including working from live models, this course will take you beyond the basics of executing a portrait and is suitable for intermediate and advanced levels. Building on the fundamentals of anatomy, tonal values and drawing, this course will allow you to combine these approaches, and develop complete images that fully explore this rewarding art form.

The course will incorporate a more in depth study of the use of colour and layering, with demonstrations in pastel, oil and watercolour/gouache.

What to bring:

- Charcoal and paper (sugar paper is available from James at a small cost)
- A sketchbook.
- A small selection of pencils – HB to 5B or 6B.
- A black drawing pen or biro
- Your choice of a colour medium, - pastel, watercolour/gouache, acrylic or oils

Refreshments: Tea and coffee are provided. Please feel free to bring your own refreshments if you have a particular requirement. Small cups are provided by the venue, if you prefer to drink from a mug please bring your own.

Parking: The Digby Hall has a public car park. Discounted tickets are available from the machine in the Digby Hall foyer.
