9 Sessions £150 or £135 for Friends of ArtsLink

Diana Pilcher is a professional artist whose own work includes painting, drawing, film and photography. She exhibits regularly and is involved in a number of art groups within the South West. Diana has many years of teaching experience across all levels from MA lecturing to community workshops. She has a wealth of experience and knowledge which she is keen to share with her students.

Course Description. Session will combine practical demonstrations with individual development of technique. Each student will be encouraged to work at their own pace.

Each session will teach the fundamentals of watercolour painting and aim to help develop the painting skills and visual ideas of each student.

Students will be encouraged to develop their own creative outcomes in the form of landscape, still life or figure. You may work from drawings of subjects that you bring from home and/or from the weekly objects that will be presented to the class.

As the course progresses students will be invited to develop a portfolio of paintings of their own choice.

Basic picture construction will be taught in the form of colour theory, control of palette, visual composition and mixing of hues. Students will be free to develop their own style of painting rather than follow a particular one.

The course will teach a range of watercolour techniques to help develop students painting skills and encourage each individual student to create original and exciting images. If preferred students will be encouraged to work in other water soluble mediums such as acrylic inks or caran d'ache.

Students will be encouraged to produce finished paintings as well as studies of their chosen subjects.

This course will emphasise the expressive quality found in watercolour painting and will not teach a 'one size fits all' approach. The repertoire of different effects that can be obtained using watercolour will be explored and students will be encouraged to experiment using these techniques and discover how they want to create images. You will be advised about materials, hue and preparation of surfaces for the paintings that you want to make. Advice will be given about choice of palette and preparation of surface.

The course is focused for students with some experience of watercolour painting, but confident beginners are welcome and will be supported. It is also suitable for someone who is used to working in other mediums but would like to have a go with watercolours.

Materials: For each session you are requested to provide your own paint, brushes and paper of your own choice.
