Welcome

Welcome to ArtsLink's new programme for Spring 2018. You will find live ballet, family art activities, one day workshops, new weekly courses, specialist groups to support people with their health and wellbeing, plus continued monthly film/supper packages.

There is increasing awareness and recognition that achieving a good life balance within our modern, hectic world is key to supporting our individual and family health. Engaging in stimulating activities, being with likeminded people, sharing things you enjoy all help to make us feel better. So, after all the mid-winter festivities do take some time to think about yourself and the balance in your life. Our Spring programme has opportunities for you to make a new start and to take part in something which will support, strengthen and enrich your life.

We look forward to starting a positive and creative new year with you all.
