Ali Cockrean is a professional artist and has been a tutor for over 10 years. Her expressionist landscape paintings appear in private collections around the world. She has undertaken many significant commissions including painting the Queen's Diamond Jubilee River Pageant for the BBC during 2012.

Ali is passionate about working with aspiring artists. As an acrylics specialist she gives talks and demonstrations across the South of England as well as writing articles for the national art press. Her friendly informal teaching style makes her a popular tutor with adults and children alike.

Course Description

Learn the fundamental rules and techniques of good painting practice including composition, form, tone, colour and texture. Ali will teach a wide variety of techniques for applying acrylic paint and students will be encouraged to experiment using a variety of styles. This is a supportive, friendly and relaxed environment for focusing on your own artistic development.
