

ArtsLink

Your link to art and culture

Interior Design with Dena Corry

Thursday 10:00 – 12:30 Autumn 2019

Oct 3/10/17/24/(Not 31), Nov 7/14/21/28

Wingfield Room, Digby Hall, Hound Street, Sherborne DT9 3AA

8 weeks £181 or £163 for Friends of ArtsLink

Dena Corry qualified in Interior Design at Chelsea School of Art following which she worked with several London design companies delivering high end interiors for private clients in this country and overseas.

Dena moved to part-time design work and developed her teaching practice in the life-long learning sector, initially in London and then Wiltshire, following a move to the country.

For the past 12 years Dena has continued delivering interiors through her freelance design business alongside teaching certificated Interior Design courses at colleges in Wiltshire. Dena has a wealth of knowledge and is keen to support you to develop your own design style, plan beautiful spaces and share your vision with others.

Who is the course aimed at?

Anyone who has an interest in either Interior design or decoration and would like to further their knowledge and experience. Whether you just want to learn how to successfully reorganise and decorate your home, or wish to pursue a career as a designer or property developer and would like to know how best to present ideas and schemes to a potential client. You may come from a different art discipline or have no art background at all, just a keen interest.

The course is suitable for new students and those who undertook Dena's course with ArtsLink in the Spring 2019.

What will you learn?

How to mix colours and produce schemes.

How to design from a given floor plan and how to produce your own.

Select fabrics, finishes and furniture. Collect trade information and samples.

Produce scaled floor plans, elevations and sample boards.

Look at furniture layout and understand positioning of services relevant to the interior.

Measured drawing survey, leading to the production of your own scaled floor plan.

Produce technical drawings and present ideas.

Gain an insight into the work of influential designers and architects.

Course Details:

Colour mixing using a colour wheel. How to create specific schemes.

Work from a scaled floor plan of a large open plan interior and re-organise the space to include a living, dining, kitchen and study area, by use of partitioning and furniture.

Produce and present mood boards using relevant samples to illustrate the scheme.

Learn how and where to source trade samples and catalogues.

Learn about scale by using a scale ruler, scaled floor plans and elevations.

Produce technical drawings of interior floor plans and elevations.

Produce a measured drawing survey of a room using a tape measure and scale ruler.

Using your own floor plan, you may either follow a given design brief or you may take the opportunity to re-design a room of your own, either for yourself or for a friend.

What will you need for the course?

It is not necessary to buy materials before the start of the course.

You may be able to purchase sheets of tracing / cartridge paper from the tutor as and when you need it.

Gouache paints- primary red, yellow and blue, black and white.

A scale ruler including scales 1:50 and 1:20.

A2 size piece of poly- board.

Tee square, set square, a range of pencils ie 2h,4h and hb. Masking tape, pritt stick., double sided tape.

A2 size piece of MDF(to be used as a drawing board).

Two drawing pens in nib thicknesses 0.1 & 0.8.

Reference information, that you will gather while on the course, including trade brochures, catalogues and interiors magazines.

Any kind of portfolio, size A2, A3 or A4 to display and keep your drawings in.

For your mood boards, you will need to collect samples, finishes and photos.

Additional Costs: You will wish to collect samples and information by visiting trade showrooms and trade exhibitions which happen at various times in the year, this may incur some travel costs.

Interior design magazines such as Living Etc any books that are relevant to the subject.

Refreshments: Tea and coffee are provided. Please feel free to bring your own refreshments if you have a particular requirement.

Parking: The Digby Hall has a public pay and display car park.

Cancellation Policy & Privacy Policy

Details of these can be found on the reverse of your confirmation letter, on our website www.sherborneartslink.org.uk or are available from our office.