Course description

The focus of this course will be taking your sketch book out and about in Sherborne to capture scenes and moments from real life. Alex will support you to gain confidence in capturing changing light, moving objects and the feeling of being present and in a real space.

Sometime will be spent in the Studio Room venue to review the drawings you have produced and investigate ways of using these images to develop further paintings, drawings and compositions. The first session will commence at this venue.

Most of the activity will take place around the town, within walking distance of the venue. Participants must be able and prepared to walk to drawing locations and work outdoors.
