James Budden is an experienced artist and tutor. Through his teaching and art demonstrations James enjoys inspiring others, sharing skills and supporting both beginners and experienced students alike. James is a graduate in Fine Art whose professional work has included 10 years as a commercial artist. He has undertaken many private and business commissions, is a regular local exhibitor and had his work shown at the Holburne Museum of Art, Bath. His personal art practice focuses on portraiture and figure studies, working mainly in oil, charcoal and pastel.

Course description This course is suitable for anyone with a basic knowledge of drawing and oil painting. Demonstrations, discussions and exercises will help you to develop your oil painting skills. We will explore working up a drawn image, methods of applying layers of paint and how to manage the palette.

What to bring

- Oil paints—a range of colours — James will advise during the course
- Linseed oil
- Brushes large and small
- Canvas or board
- Large palette
- Turpentine/white spirit and jars
- Rags or strong kitchen towel
- Clothes which can get dirty/stained

Refreshments: Tea and coffee are provided at the venue. Please bring a portable drink and snack to take out and about.

Parking: The Digby Hall has a public car park. Discounted tickets are available from the machine in the Digby Hall foyer.

Celebrating the Arts - Saturday 22 June 2019. All course participants are invited to join us and be part of celebrating a year of creativity through ArtsLink activities. This is an opportunity to show your work, listen to talks and see what other groups have produced, so please save the date. Further details will be given at the courses.
