Talks & Demonstrations

11.15 am Getting it Right by Alex Cree

Using one of his own paintings Alex will demonstrate how to start and develop a painting in order to 'get it right'.

12.00 pm Stained Glass – a brief history by Kate Doig

Do you know leaded from copper foiled? How was glass made, painted and stained in years gone by? Using actual examples and images Kate will reveal some of the mysteries.

12.45 pm The Benefit of Drawing by Susan R Hughes

Why draw? How drawing can benefit you as an artist or just as a human being.

1.30 pm Watercolour – A Very Versatile Medium by Diana Pilcher

An illustrated talk showing how versatile watercolour can be and how following a few simple rules can enable you to enjoy painting in this medium.

3.00 pm Archer – Journey to Stonehenge by Jane Bryne

Author and artist Jane will tell us about writing and illustrating her delightful book which chronicles a journey from Switzerland to Stonehenge by a Stone Age boy. Especially suitable for families.

Art Exhibition

See work produced by ArtsLink participants, ask about the processes they use, be inspired:

- Chat to our inspirational tutors
- Discover our diverse range of classes
- View an amazing selection of sketchbooks, work in progress and finished pieces.

Pop up Artist Studios

Throughout the day professional artists will create mini studio working spaces and demonstrate their skills and practice.

Creating and Making

11 am – 3 pm Everyone of all ages welcome.

Clay Mini Beasts - Join in and have fun with clay.

Run by Creative Clay for all.

Re-Wilding Pebble Project - Make someone's day!

Decorate pebbles with colour and words and carefully release them into town or country for others to find and treasure.

Parkinson's Tea Dance

2.15 pm – 3.15 pm

Watch and then join in a fun dance session led by our Parkinson's dance participants and dance tutors trained by Pavilion Dance South West. For all ages and abilities including those with two left feet!
